

ASPS Member-Exclusive Benefits

- Discounted Access to ASPS Surgically-Focused Continuing Education Events.
With conference lecturers and surgical topics receiving an average rating of 98% on post-conference evaluations, attendees of the annual ASPS Surgical Conference receive top-notch, comprehensive surgical education, with member registration fees 33% less than other organizations. Save the date for the 6th Annual ASPS Surgical Conference which is being held September 21 – 22, 2018 in Cleveland, OH. This is a Continuing Education event.
- Free ASPS Surgical Webinars.
Wanting to expand the reach of ASPS' exceptional surgical education, the ASPS Board of Directors and the ASPS Education Committee committed to affording the membership continuous access to ASPS' expert lecturers. In March, ASPS launched the ASPS Surgical Webinar Series featuring Dr. Jeffrey Lehrman hosting his lecture on coding First Ray procedures. Since March, these webinars have been held monthly with record attendance. ASPS Surgical Webinars allow for Q&A with the lecturer, and are recorded and placed on the ASPS website the day after the live webinar. Additionally, ASPS members have exclusive access to the webinar recordings made available on the ASPS website.
- Leadership Opportunities.
ASPS relies upon its members to help shape the organization. We strongly encourage all members to get involved; whether it be running for the ASPS Board of Directors, lecturing at an ASPS Continuing Education event, serving on an ASPS committee, or hosting a surgical webinar. Your involvement is imperative to directing the course of not just ASPS, but the profession as a whole.
- Highlighting Members within ASPS.
In January of 2017, ASPS introduced the ASPS Member Spotlight. An initiative aimed at highlighting and featuring ASPS members of all membership categories within the association, the ASPS Member Spotlight serves as an opportunity for networking exclusively with ASPS members.
- Supporting APMA & Young Physicians.
As the recognized surgical affiliate, ASPS continues to work closely with APMA. In addition to providing a surgical lecture track at the APMA National, ASPS is once again hosting the Young Physician & ASPS Member Reception at the APMA National. Additionally, ASPS is excited to host a hands-on cadaveric workshop for the young physicians attending APMA's Young Physician Institute.
- Exceptional Surgical Education.
"This is the first ASPS conference I've attended and I will certainly look to attend more. Speakers and topics are excellent and engaging."

“The conference was fantastic and informative, great organization/structure, very knowledgeable lecturers and attendees. I found the whole experience extremely beneficial.”

On average, over 90% of attendees of the ASPS Surgical Conference learn new information that pertains to their everyday practice. The ASPS Education Committee is planning a hands-on Ankle Arthroscopy lab in the Spring of 2018, stay tuned to your ASPS member eBlast for details.

- ASPS Member-Exclusive Discounts.

ASPS has teamed up with TicketsatWork to offer ASPS members large discounts, excellent prices, and special access to theme parks (including Disney), movie tickets, concerts, water parks, car rentals, sporting events, hotels, and more.

- Affordable Dues Structure.

ASPS' affordable dues structure remains the same. On average, ASPS' dues are 63% more cost effective when compared to other organizations within the profession. With annual membership dues of only $300, ASPS strives to maintain affordability in all aspects of the organization. Renewing your dues can be done online at aspsmembers.org, over the phone by calling ASPS Administrator Sara Chergosky at 301-581-9253, or by check.
