

VIRTUAL EDUCATION SERIES

The educational mission of the American Society of Podiatric Surgeons (ASPS) is to provide outstanding surgical education for our members and the podiatric community who have an interest in foot and ankle surgery.

During this uncertain time of in-person meetings due to COVID-19, we are pleased to provide an expanded portfolio of live and online CME accredited virtual education opportunities.

Please click here for APMA updates and news on COVID-19.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are the live webinars free?

- Yes, any physician or medical professional may attend our free LIVE webinars.
- ASPS membership is not required.

Do the live webinars offer CME (CECH) credit?

- Yes, any DPM who completes 60 minutes (or more) of a live webinar can claim 1.0 CECH (continuing education contact hour) of CME credit.

How do I claim credits for live webinars?

- To claim credit, create an account at <https://cine-med.com/asps2020> and choose the activities in which you participated.
 - You only need to create an account once for this series, please keep your email and password to login after each webinar.
 - This is not the same as your ASPS member login or webinar registration login.
- Certificates will be issued at the END of the virtual series; they will not be issued after each webinar.
- If you need a certificate of hours completed prior to the conclusion of this series, please check the box that reads "I need to receive my CME credit before the end of June to meet my state board requirements".

I cannot attend the live webinar; can I watch the on-demand video of the presentation?

- Yes, members of ASPS go to <https://aspsmembers.org/on-demand> and log into their member profile to gain access.
 - If you cannot remember your ASPS password, click "forgot password" to reset
- Yes, non-members may purchase a "CME/CECH Access" pass at <https://www.aspsmembers.org/application> to view and claim credits for up to one (1) year.

Do the on-demand videos offer CME (CECH) credit?

- Yes, any DPM who completes 60 minutes (or more) of an on-demand video (recorded webinar) can claim 1.0 CECH (continuing education contact hour) of CME credit.

Are the on-demand videos free?

- Yes, for ASPS members.
- No, for ASPS non-members.
 - Non-Members may purchase a "CME/CECH Access" pass at <https://www.aspsmembers.org/application> to view and claim credits for up to one (1) year.

How do I claim credits for on-demand videos?

- To claim credit, create an account at <https://cine-med.com/asps2020> and choose the activities in which you participated.
 - You only need to create an account once for this series, please keep your email and password to login after each webinar.
 - This is not the same as your ASPS member login or webinar registration login.
- Certificates will be issued at the END of the virtual series; they will not be issued after each webinar.
- If you need a certificate of hours completed prior to the conclusion of this series, please check the box that reads "I need to receive my CME credit before the end of June to meet my state board requirements".